PINS AND NEEDLES.

Their Remarkable Pereginations Through the Human Body.

(London Lancet.)

The vagaries of needles which have been introduced in the body, and have escaped immediate removal, have in all ages attracted the attention of collectors of the marvellous in medicine. Hildanus related an instance of a woman who swallowed several pins and passed them six years afterward; but a more remarkable instance of prolonged detention was lately recorded by Dr. Stephenson of Detroit—that of a lady, aged seventy-five, who last year passed by the urethra, after some months' symptoms of vesical irritation, a pin she had swallowed while picking her teeth with it in the year 1835—forty-two years previously. Occasional pains in the throat was the only immediate symptom, but in 1845 she was seized with severe gastric pain, which passed away, and she had no further symptoms until hematuria in 1877.

This curious toleration of such foreign bodies exhibited by the tissues is often observed in lunatic asylums. M. Silvy recorded some years ago the case of a woman who had a penicillan for pins and needles so strong that she made them, in effect, part of her daily diet, and, after her death, 1,400 or 1,500 were removed from various parts of the body.

Another case, almost as striking, has been recorded by Dr. Gillette—that of a girl in whom, from time to time, needles were found beneath the skin, which they perforated, and were removed by the fingers and forceps. Concerning the way in which they had got into her system no information could be extracted from her. She was carefully watched, and in the course of eighteen months no less than 320 needles had been extracted, all being of the same size. Most were black and oxidized, but some had retained their polish. The majority were unbroken. They passed out of various parts of the body above the diaphragm at regular intervals, but in a sort of series, and always in the same direction. Most escaped in the region of the left nipple, and a few as apertures in the arms, axilla, thigh, temple and cheek. Sometimes several passed out of the same opening. The largest number which escaped in a single day was sixty-one. A curious phenomenon preceded the escape of each needle. For some hours the pain was severe, and there was considerable fever. She then felt a sharp pain, like lightning, in the tissues, and on looking at the place at which the pain had been felt, the head of the needle was generally found projecting. The needles generally came out head foremost. No bleeding was occasioned, and not the least trace of inflammation followed. The doctor in attendance extracted 318. They were sometimes held firmly, and seemed to be contained in a sort of indurated canal. It was conjectured that they had been swallowed with suicidal intentions; but on the other hand, the way in which the needles escaped in series, and their direction with head outwards, suggested that they had been introduced through the skin.

That little weight is to be attached to the place at which the needles escape as proof of their mode of introduction is evident from a case recorded by Villars of a girl who swallowed a large number of pins and needles, and two years afterward, during a period of nine months, 200 passed out of the hand, arm, axilla, chest, side of thorax, abdomen and thigh, all on the left side. The pins, curiously enough, escaped more readily and with less pain than the needles. Many years ago a case was recorded by Dr. Otto of Copenhagen, in which 395 needles passed through the skin of a hysterical girl, who had probably swallowed them during a hysterical paroxysm; but these all emerged in the regions below the level of the diaphragm, and were collected in groups which gave rise to inflammatory swellings of some size. One of these contained 100 needles.

Quite recently, Dr. Bigger described before the Society of Dublin, a case in which more than 300 needles were removed from the body of a woman, who died in consequence of their presence. It is very remarkable in how few of the cases the needles were the cause of death, and how slight an interference with function their presence and movement cause. From time to time their detention by a magnetic needle is proposed as a novelty; but, as Dr. Gillette reminds us, this method was employed by Smea nearly forty years ago, and has often been adopted since.

ABE EDGINGTON'S JOCKEY.

The San Francisco Call of the 19th has the following:

James Mooney was before the Police Judge yesterday, charged with having obtained money from Schwartz & Gans, cigar dealers, by means of false representations. Counsel for the prosecution moved a postponement of the trial on the ground of the absence of material witnesses. Counsel for the defence objected on the ground that James G. Fair, a witness summoned in the case and present in Court, was forced to absent himself from the city on account of his health. Counsel for the prosecution said that if the defence would admit that the defendant had, for three years past, been in the employ of Mr. Fair, in Virginia City, that gentleman would be excused. The admission was made, and the case went over until next Tuesday. The defendant, who is a horseman, in June, 1875, drove Abe Edgington during a race in this city, and on the evening of the day of the race called at the store of Schwartz & Gans, where, it is alleged, he represented that he had $1,600 on deposit with W. E. Bridges, but was unable to draw against this amount as Mr. Bridges was not at his place of business; that he asked for a loan of one hundred dollars, promising to return the same on the following day, but that he failed to put in an appearance, when inquiry was made, and it was ascertained that he did not have any money on deposit with Mr. Bridges. In the afternoon the Prosecuting Attorney asked that the charge against Mooney be dismissed. The motion was granted.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Yellow fever is very fatal in portions of Mexico.

The English military reserve will be disbanded after the 31st.

Cuba will have 40 deputies and 10 Senators in the Spanish Cortez.

The firing on the English by the Russians seems to have been unintentional.

Emperor William has entirely recovered from his wounds, but is still very feeble.

All efforts to settle the difficulty with the striking miners in France have failed.

A cyclone struck Albany, N. Y., yesterday and damaged $100,000 worth of property.

Three men died from sunstroke in an Omaha grain field yesterday. It is cooler in St. Louis.

A very determined opposition by the Liberals against Beaconsfield will be made in England.

Gov. Tilden will personally aid in carrying the close Congressional districts for the Democracy.

A big fire is raging in the grain fields near Lincoln, Cal. A large force of men are fighting it.

The agent at the Umatilla Reservation reports a scarcity of food, and has drawn $3,000 for an extra allowance.

Bosnia seems to be on the eve of another troublesome time. They are very much dissatisfied at Austria's occupancy.

The first shipment of Chinese to Peru from San Francisco occurred by the Alaska yesterday. They are under contract for $16 per month for three years.

James Gordon Bennett asks the Naval Department to supply officers, men and provisions for the Danulens on its trip to the North Pole. The canoe is now on its way to San Francisco.

Three out of the five banks at Omaha refuse to receive Mexican and trade dollars on deposit, and the Union Pacific Railroad Company has instructed all its agents and conductors not to receive Mexican and trade dollars except at a discount of ten per cent. This state of affairs was brought about owing to the First National Bank selling trade dollars at 99 cents, and subsidiary coin at the same rate, and refusing to receive the same on deposit except at one per cent. discount, unless depositors would consent to be paid in the same kind of coin. The First National Bank continues to handle the coin as usual, and has just received a large shipment of trade dollars from San Francisco.

Extreme simplicity in dressing hair is again in vogue in London. A correspondent says at opera and at theatres, where bonnets and hats are prohibited, the hair of budding belle and bouncing dowager is alike free from rolls, puffs, wads and frizzes. This makes a homely woman winning, and a pretty one demure.

In Montana the settlers are destroying grasshoppers by the million bushels by placing boxes in irrigating ditches and burying the insects shoveled out. Two men took out 100 bushels in a day while the hoppers were traveling across the ditches.

A new industry is said to be extending rapidly in France. It consists in the manufacture of a cloth five times lighter and three times warmer than wool, from the feathers of domestic and other birds. The material is waterproof and takes dye rapidly.

REPRESENTATIVE HUNTON, of Virginia, who recently challenged Columbus Alexander of Washington to a duel, now posts that gentleman as "a malicious liar, vulgar black-guard and irresponsible coward."

SENATOR SARGENT, of California, is said to have been the only member of the Senate that attended every day's session from December to June.

THE PEOPLE'S IDOL.

The flattering reception given Senator John P. Jones upon his arrival home shows what a love exists toward him among the people of Nevada, and to their credit let it be said that Democrats, as well as Republicans, have plainly testified the love they bear him. If Jones could come before the people direct for his reelection he would receive 10,000 majority in this State. As it is the Republicans are certain to carry the Legislature because it will insure Jones' reelection. During the coming canvass Senator Jones will discuss with the people the Chinese question and the proper relations between Capital and Labor, and during his next term will endeavor to push his ideas through upon those subjects, with as much success as has attended his efforts on the Silver bill.

FOX AND HAGERMAN.

Hon. L. T. Fox, of Storey, is a candidate for Governor. Mr. Fox is a Democrat and in our opinion the strongest man that could be placed on the Democratic ticket. He is 2,000 votes stronger than Bradley. It is said that the Bradleyites are beginning to realize that the "old man" is not as popular as he might be, and many have come to the conclusion that Tom Fox had better receive the nomination. The knowing ones assert that if Fox is nominated for Governor, J. C. Hagerman will be placed on the ticket for Lieutenant Governor. Wonder if that won't be the ticket.

POLITICAL.

Ben Fitch is a Democratic candidate for Sheriff of Elko county.

The Republican County Central Committee of Eureka will meet on the 24th of this month.

The Democratic County Central Committee of White Pine is called to meet on the 24th of July.

The Elko Independent mentions the name of Hon. J. A. Savage for Judge of that county. He was a member of the Legislature a few years ago.

Professor D. R. Sessions, President of the State University, is on the Comstock. He announces himself as a candidate for Superintendent of Public Schools.

The Eureka Sentinel says: "The Footlight brings Major John H. Dennis forward as a candidate for Congress. The Major is the man. He has been our black horse all the way through."

Eureka Sentinel: "The efforts of certain interested parties over about the Capital to fix up a full ticket for the Democracy prior to the meeting of the Democratic State Convention is very amusing."

The nomination of Bradley for a third term in 1878, will deprive the Nevada Democracy of the only effective weapon of combatting Grantism in 1880. Paste this in your hats, Democrats, and see how far we fall short of the mark.

The Carson Tribune understands that the many friends of O. K. Stampely, ex Senator from Humboldt county, and proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel, are writing to him continuously to stand in for Lieutenant Governor of the State on the Democratic ticket.

THE Sentinel says: "And now it is the Bradley crowd who are becoming alarmed. A Carson correspondent of the Silver State, whom we take to be his Excellency's private secretary, writes to say that General Connor is a mine superintendent and a great friend of monopolists. We always knew this. Brigham Young had a monopoly of things in Utah, and of course he captured Connor without so much as an effort—only he didn't. The Carson Appeal says the whole West is ablaze for Connor."

MR. GLADSTONE is very bitter on the Treaty of Berlin and the action of the British Cabinet. He says "England has sold Bessarabia to Russia, the conquests of the brave Montenegrins to Austria's jealousy and selfishness, the Greeks to Turkey, and lastly Turkey to England." He hopes the Ministry will shortly be judged by an appeal to the country.

The number of teeth at maturity is thirty-two, or sixteen in each jaw. The eight front ones are called cutting teeth, and the two next on each side are called dog or eye teeth. The two next are two pointed teeth, and the three next on each side are called molars or grinders. The two last are called wisdom teeth, as they are cut last.

At Madison, Wisconsin, they have good tramp medicine. As fast as they get there, they are put to work on the stone pile. On the 11th they arrested sixty in one batch—who had just come in in charge of a railway train they had captured—and the Police Judge sentenced them to sixty days breaking stones on the street. The next day they arrested as many more, and put them at the same healthy occupation for the same length of time. Now the tramps are giving Madison a wide berth. It is a good plan, and one that ought to be followed by every other city and town till an end is put to the tramp question. Give them a change, and work is the greatest change the roving vagrants and professional thieves could have.

THE Leader gives an account of a Chinese Masonic funeral in Eureka. It was the most gorgeous barbaric display ever seen in Eastern Nevada, in which brass bands, Chinese bands, heathens in their robes, and hired female mourners were luxuriously blended. The defunct was one Ah Ling, a big Mason, and he went out under a blaze of glory.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY.

[Eureka Sentinel.]

'There is not a man in Nevada today that believes Bradley is competent for Governor; there is not a man who knows him who will pretend to claim that Bradley is capable of distinguishing between the bullion tax bill which he vetoed and that at present in force; there is not a Democrat in Nevada who does not feel, in his heart, that to nominate Bradley for a third term is open and palpable to stultification; there is not a Democrat in Nevada of brains or prominence enough to run for pound master who will not admit, if he be honest, that to break down and override one of the cardinal doctrines of the party must bring lasting distrust and disgrace upon it, such as can in no wise be compensated for, by the hope of temporary success; and yet we not unfrequently hear men, who ought to be men, say "we are opposed to Bradley, we don't believe he is at all competent, we are unqualifiedly against running any man for a third term, still we believe he is the only man with whom we can win." Away with all such unmanly twaddle; away with this huckstering and truckling. Better never win; better remain in the minority for all time than sacrifice one of the deep seated tenets of the Democratic party, in order to foist upon the people a figurehead for Governor. But we deny Bradley's availability. There are hundreds of honest anti third term Democrats all over the State who will never vote for him again; the miners, chloriders and prospectors will withhold in a great measure their support; Republicans who hitherto stood by him, shake their heads and say "no more of him in ours." There is indeed a reasonable probability that he may turn out to be the weakest candidate the party could possibly place in the field. The campaign must be kept at high tide or he is gone. It will not do to allow the people to reflect. Elected as a Democrat, his administration of the office of Governor for eight years has never been of the slightest benefit to his party. Two years ago when the Presidential contest had assumed a threatening aspect, when, in fact, the country stood on the very brink of war, a war of political parties and not of sections, a glance at the situation in Nevada showed the militia of the State to be almost exclusively under the control of the Republicans, and this, too, by the grace of Governor Bradley. In his appointment of Notaries Public, also, he has invariably favored not less than two Republicans to one Democrat. These acts may be especially desirable in a Democratic standard-bearer, but we confess our inability to appreciate wherein they constitute claims upon the party. Among cravens, however, who echo the cry of "Anybody to win," all record goes for naught.

It is not true that Bradley is the only Democrat in the State who can lead the party to victory in the coming race. To nominate him is to throw away every hope of the Senatorial succession. It will be the old combination, Senatorial and gubernatorial over again. How Bradley and the Sharon legislative ticket ran side by side in Storey county four years ago is well understood throughout the State. No party man, be he Democrat or Republican, desires a reputation of this kind of trickery.

We hold that any respectable Democrat stands more than an even chance to beat any one mentioned on the other side for Governor. In Storey county, where both are well known, L. T. Fox, of Gold Hill, is 1,500 votes stronger than Bradley. In the eastern counties, Hagerman is stronger than either. Either of these gentlemen, or ex Mayor Currie, would make a successful and winning canvass as against any gentleman likely to be nominated by the Republicans. By running either of these, the Democracy will avoid the bad odor of stultification on the third term proposition, which must cling to it for twenty years if Bradley is renominated.

THE 63d anniversary of the battle of Waterloo, recently celebrated, witnessed 43 survivors in England who held commissions in the engagement, of whom 25 are still drawing full or half pay, while 18 have altogether retired from the service.

LAWYERS' INCOMES.

The San Francisco Call contains the following:

The heaviest legal incomes in the city vary from $50,000 to $60,000 per annum. On the other hand there are plenty of lawyers struggling for a practice who do not make $50 per month the year round. Some of our leading attorneys require a fee of $1,000 before they will have anything to do with a case. Important fees in criminal cases range from $250 to $2,500, and instances are common where much larger sums have been paid. In 1873, William H. Patterson and the late John B. Felton received $40,000 for defending the local option law before the Supreme Court. They only worked on the case about two weeks, and worked in a very leisurely style at that. The money was placed on deposit beforehand, and when a favorable decision was announced, all they had to do was to go to the bank and get it. Each of them received $20,000, equal to about $300 an hour, or $5 a minute that he was actually occupied on the case. The emotions of a man who realizes that his ordinary professional services can be made so valuable as to net him a small fortune in a couple of weeks, must be very peculiar indeed. In the celebrated city slip cases Mr. Felton's fees amounted to a quarter of a million dollars. On one occasion he received $30,000 for his services in a Spanish grant contest, and on still another occasion was paid $10,000 on condition that he would not appear as attorney in a certain pending case. In 1870 S. W. Sanderson resigned the high position of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of California in order to become attorney of the Central Pacific Railroad Company. The inducement offered was in proportion to the sacrifice, and consisted of a permanent salary of $1,000 per month, which was subsequently increased to $2,000 per month. Some wealthy commercial firms find it to their advantage to employ first class lawyers upon a handsome annual salary.

SUTRO FOR GOVERNOR.

We have been shown a letter by a friend from the Western part of the State, intimating that there will be a third party in the field this Fall with Sutro at its head for Governor. Just now Mr. Sutro is a lion, and the recipient of numerous compliments from the press. The completion of his tunnel has brought him into popularity and public notice, and will make him, in case he runs, a formidable candidate. If he enters the field in earnest he will probably upset all past calculations, and awaken renewed interest in the campaign. Calling him an Assyrian, and making comic allusions to his "big bore" will not put him down this time. He will probably be a Workingmen's candidate. —Tybo Sun.
